PRESS RELEASE

Re; New website, Apex Anodizing

January 21st, 2011

To our clients and friends,

We are proud to announce the publication of our new website for Apex Anodizing.

Our hope is to better serve the needs of our customers as well as create a more professional, functional and up-to-date representation of our company.

You can view the site at www.apexanodizing.com. Please forward your comments or concerns in regards to the new site to Olive Olson in our Portland office.

We look forward to hearing from you and appreciate every opportunity to be of service. Our best wishes for your success!

Sincerely,

Matt Roberts
